Parting is Such Sweet Sorrow at Welcome Home Weekend

Philadelphia, PA- August 27, 2010

It's that time of year again when we welcome all of the students back to their "home-away-from-home" and enjoy another exciting school year. Imagine walking the red carpet of the finest awards ceremony or into the most prestigious hotel in Philadelphia, and you'll see how the students, right here in the heart of University City, Philadelphia, are welcomed back to The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College.

This Saturday, August 28, you'll find red carpets lining the sidewalks and beverage stations awaiting the parents as they arrive, all while a concierge service whisks away the incoming students' luggage straight to their on-campus housing within a blink of the eye. True hospitality at its finest! Meanwhile, the students and their families will enjoy a variety of specialty global lunch options from Italy, France, China, Greece, and the USA all right here in the college's International Bistro/Courtyard before saying their goodbyes.

For the first time, the College will be integrating their iPad initiative into their Welcome Home experience. All incoming Associate and Bachelor students will find their orientation materials, schedules, handbook, and the many club/activities right on their very own iPad that they get to keep upon graduation. What better way to welcome a generation of technology savvy students other than through the language that they are already speaking.

The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College offers four majors in Culinary Arts, Hotel Management, Pastry Arts, and Restaurant Management. They offer a real life, interactive educational experience in a bustling restaurant environment in the heart of University City, Philadelphia. This combination of scholastic and professional experience positions The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College graduates ahead of their peers pursuing careers in the restaurant and hotel industry.
