- efficiently and effectively manage food preparation for service
- successfully lead students through daily turnout
- oversee all food safety, sanitation and cleaning procedures
- maintain compliance with requirements of the Philadelphia Department of Health
- ensure student learning outcomes are met through appropriate instruction and assessment measures

Successful applicants will:

- have 10+years of experience in leading an operational kitchen
- have excellent verbal and written communication skills

- have the ability to multi-task
- embrace and employ hands-on and experiential teaching and training techniques
- exhibit a high degree of time management
- be extremely passionate about gastronomy, hospitality, and student development
- hold at least an earned Bachelor's Degree in the area of study (Associate degree applicants will be considered, however applicant must prove commensurate experience as an Executive Chef in upscale/fine dining)
- hold, or be willing to earn the ServSafe Manager Certification
- be willing to grow as a chef and teacher while supporting our students in reaching their dreams

Successful applicants will embody the spirit of hospitality and seek to inspire our students into their chosen career path. Prior teaching experience in higher education is preferred.
